

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Joseph Dillmann of Niederbuchen, Nassau, Germany
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 27
Immigrating Ancestor	Joseph Dillmann
Alternate names
Date of Immigration	Nov 1856
Description	Joseph's migration is known primarily from a publication of a compilation of announcements which appeared in the local Nassau newspaper from 1806-1866. His son, likely known as Adam in the United States (and Anton in Germany) submitted naturalization papers which have survived. This family lived in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Adam was a saloon keeper as was his brother, Jakob. He also has descendants who remained in the area.
Facts
Dillman DNA Study	No
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	Joseph Dillmann b.ca. 1808
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	Niederbuchen, Nassau, Germany
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Germany (- 1856) USA (1856 – present) – Milwaukee, WI
Active Researchers	