

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

| | |
|--|--|
| Commonly Known As | Friederich Dittmann of Tuchel, Pomerania, Prussia (modern day Poland) |
| DFA Family Group Number | Family Group 78 |
| Immigrating Ancestor | Auguste Dillmann |
| Alternate names | Auguste Dittmann/Dettmann |
| Date of Immigration | Auguste arrived in New York from Stettin, Germany on 27 Apr 1891 |
| Description | This family in the records were often indexed incorrectly given the handwriting style of many of those people recording the events. The surname was Dittmann, but given the subtlety of the execution of the double "t", indexers have transcribed incorrectly as Dillmann. Auguste and her (step) granddaughter Emilie arrived in New York and headed to their home in Yoakum, Texas. |
| Facts | Wilhelm Martin Dittmann was baptised on 18 Jan 1874, the son of Friedrich Dettmann and Auguste Dettmann at the Evangelische church of Tuchel, West Prussia. |
| Dillman DNA Study | No |
| Family Tree Chart link | N/A |
| Notable family members | |
| Farthest back ancestor | Friederich Dittmann |
| Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor | Tuchel, Pomerania, Germany (modern day Poland) |
| Subsequent migration events | |
| Geographic Coverage | Germany (-) USA (1891 -) |
| Active Researchers | |