

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Kapsweyer Dillmanns
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 16
Immigrating Ancestor	Jacob Adam Dillmann
Alternate names	Salmbach, Neewiller-pres-Lauterbourg Dillmanns
Date of Immigration	1860's
Description	The family lived in Kapsweyer, Germany from around 1680's to 1860's, then moved across the border to Salmbach, France, and then to Neewiller-pres-Lauterbourg just before the turn of the 19 th century and continue to live there today
Facts	Bernard Dillmann born circa 1682 married Margaret Kobel on January 13, 1716 in Kapsweyer Nicholas Dillmann Jr. was born in Salmbach, France on September 4, 1878, and married Isabella Stavert in New York City in 1912 and died April 1, 1952, age 53 years old. Most family members were either farmers or shepherds, Nicholas was a baker.
Dillman DNA Study	Yes J2 Haplogroup – participant # 361637
Family Tree Chart link	http://dillmanfamilyassociation.org/ddna/dnafam16.pdf
Notable family members	n/a
Farthest back ancestor	Bernard Dillmann born circa 1682, died April 7, 1761, age 79 years, Kapsweyer, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	Kapsweyer, Germany
Subsequent migration events	Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany to Alsace, France (1860's) Alois Dillmann (1872 to Ohio) Michael Dillmann (1887 to Ohio) Joseph Dillmann (1891 to California) Nicholas Dillmann (1894 to New York)
Geographic Coverage	Germany (-) France (1860's -) USA (f 1894)
Active Researchers	Gerard (Gerry) Dillmann