

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Karl Dillman of Snoqualmie, Washington and Saxony, Germany
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 159
Immigrating Ancestor	Henry Ellsworth Dillmann
Alternate names	Henry Dillman
Date of Immigration	According to the 1900 US Census for Arapahoe County, Colorado, Henry arrived in the US in 1882.
Description	This family first lived in Colorado, later relocating to Snoqualmie, Washington State. After a few years there, Henry had a calf whose leg was broken by a neighbouring rancher. Henry threatened to report the neighbour to the authorities and the neighbour pulled out his gun and shot Henry dead. This was the 23 May 1912. He left behind a widow and 4 small children. The probate of his estate took 15 years to settle.
Facts	Henry E Dillman was born 25 Mar 1869 in Saxony, Germany and died 24 May 1912 according to Find-a-Grave although both the newspaper article in the Seattle Star as well as the probate documentation.
Dillman DNA Study	No
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	Karl Dillmann
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Germany (-) USA (1882 -)
Active Researchers	