

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Alfred Dillmann of Munich, Bavaria, Germany and Germersheim, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 196
Immigrating Ancestor	None
Alternate names
Date of Immigration	None
Description	Alfred Dillmann because the Chief of Police (PolizeiPräsident) for Bavaria for a period of time and in 1899 created a registry book on Gypsies/Roma containing genealogical information. In 1911, he attempted to create a central office in the German Reich, however, Prussia's leadership declined to participate. His efforts predates similar ones of later German initiatives in the mid-1930s.
Facts	Alfred Dillmann was born in Germersheim, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany on 17 Mar 1849 and died in Munich, Bavaria, Germany on 5 Dec 1924.
Dillman DNA Study	N
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	Alfred Dillmann
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	Germersheim, Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Germany (-)
Active Researchers	