

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Johann Dillmann of Scotts Bluff, Nebraska and New Norka, Saratov, Russia
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 211
Immigrating Ancestor	John Dillman
Alternate names
Date of Immigration	He arrived at Quebec, City, Quebec, Canada in May 1905.
Description	John initially lived in the US from 1905 until 1913 at Ura, Nebraska, then spent some time in Winnipeg, Manitoba before returning to the US at Pembina, North Dakota on 31 Jul 1913. He gravitated to Scotts Bluff, Nebraska where other Germans from Russia surnamed Dillman were living.
Facts	John's sister, Anna, married Frederick Herdt on 27 Jan 1897 and they moved to Sugar City, Colorado from Russia in 1907.
Dillman DNA Study	N
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	Johann Dillmann
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	New Norka, Saratov, Russia
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Germany (-); Russia (-); USA (1905 -)
Active Researchers	