

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	Nikolaus Dillmann of Shaler, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania and Bruchsal, Baden, Germany
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 220
Immigrating Ancestor	Joseph Dillmann
Alternate names	Joseph Dilman / Johann Baptist Joseph Dillmann / Joseph B. Dillmann
Date of Immigration	Unknown
Description	Joseph applied for a US passport on 8 Apr 1859 at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, noting that he was naturalized. He was initially a confectioner. In 1891, he and 2 sons passed away in short order of each other, Jacob Friedrich on 4 Jan 1891, then Johann on 25 Mar 1891 and as below, Joseph B. on 22 Apr 1891.
Facts	Joseph B. Dillmann was buried on 22 Apr 1891 at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Shaler, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. Joseph was married in his home town of Bruchsal, Baden on 28 Nov 1847, the son of Nikolaus Dillmann and Katharina Franziska Diruf. He married Margaretha Barbara Reich. She likely died prior to his emigration.
Dillman DNA Study	N
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	Nikolaus Dillmann
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	Bruchsal, Baden, Germany
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Germany (-); USA (-)
Active Researchers	