

Dillman Family Association's Family Group Fact Sheet

Commonly Known As	David Dillmann of Toronto, Ontario, Canada and Janow, Russia
DFA Family Group Number	Family Group 223
Immigrating Ancestor	Jossel Dillman
Alternate names	Fossel Dillman / Jossel Dillmann
Date of Immigration	Jossel sailed from Hamburg, Germany to Grimbsy, England with a final destination of Canada on 26 Apr 1911, although his brother Nathan was in Canada already.
Description	Jossel initially settled with his family in Aulton, Ontario before relocating to Toronto before 1930. He was joining his brother Nate. Joseph was noted as a peddler/merchant. Joseph's death record lists his parents as being David and Anna Dilman of Russia.
Facts	Joseph Dillman died 31 Oct 1936 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada and is buried in the Roselawn Avenue Cemetery
Dillman DNA Study	N
Family Tree Chart link	N/A
Notable family members
Farthest back ancestor	David Dillmann
Birthplace/residence of farthest back ancestor	Janow, Russia
Subsequent migration events
Geographic Coverage	Russia (-); Canada (1911 -)
Active Researchers	